SUMMARY

BARCENSIS DIOCESE (BARCENSIS ECCLESIA)

Ante ŠKEGRO

In the previous researches, this diocese was mainly searched in the deep hinterland of the eastern Adriatic. It was mainly associated with the Roman travel station Baloie registered on the „Tabula Peutingeriana“ or with the fortress Balkes (Βάλκης), known from the context of the Avar - Slavic devastation of the Province of Dalmatia in the late 6th century. It was less frequently associated with other places, for example civitas Bacensis from the XIth novel of the Codex of the Byzantine Emperor Justinianus (527-565).
