

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Martin BELL, London, Great Britain. He studied in Cambridge (1962) and was employed in BBC. For more than 30 years he had reported from over 80 countries, 11 of which were in an armed conflict. After his reports from the war in Vietnam he became one of the most respected world names in war journalism. He was reporting from Vukovar and directly witnessed to the crimes of Serbian Army. Mr. Bell was awarded with several awards and recognitions.

Janusz BUGAJSKI, Washington, USA. Director of East European Studies at the Centre for Strategic and International Studies in Washington. He was the editor of the Radio Free Europe in Munich, and consultant and lecturer at several agencies, institutes and projects in USA. Bugajski is the author of several books dealing with ethnic and political topics in the East Europe and wrote numerous articles for the media. He was awarded with several awards and recognitions for his work.

Ivan ČIZMIĆ, Ph.D., Zagreb, Croatia. Research Advisor at the Ivo Pilar Institute of Social Sciences, a historian and a lawyer. His research interests are Croatian emigration and he is the author of several books, studies and articles on the topic. He cooperated in a number of international and national projects and scientific symposia.

Luc HUYSE, Leuven, Belgium. Until his retirement (in 2000) he was professor of sociology and sociology of law at the Leuven University Law School. He was consultant to government and non-governmental organizations in Burundi and Ethiopia, and has written extensively on the consolidation of young democracies. His current researches deal with the role of retributive justice after violent conflicts.

Katica IVANDA, M.Sc., Zagreb, Croatia. Assistant at the Ivo Pilar Institute of Social Sciences. She studied in Germany and Great Britain, and earned her M.Sc. degree in the field of Social History and Migrations. She is preparing her doctoral thesis at the University in Bremen in Germany. Ms. Ivanda carried out her researches at the institute Multicultural History Society in Toronto, Canada. She is participating in the research project Integration Processes between the Republic of Croatia and Croatian Emigrants.

Josip JURČEVIĆ, Ph.D., Zagreb, Croatia. Research Advisor at the Ivo Pilar Institute of Social Sciences. He teaches General History of the 20th century and History of the Establishment of the Modern Croatian State at Studia Croatica. Founder and first director of the Central Archive at the Ministry of Defence. He is Principal Investigator on the project The Homeland War; the author of one book and 16 scientific papers, co-author or editor of 25 books; participated in 21 scientific symposia; participated as expert consultant in 6 documentary films.

Zlatko KARAČ, Zagreb, Croatia. He teaches at the Department of Town Planning of the Faculty of Architecture in Zagreb. He is preparing a doctoral thesis on the topic of urban development of Vukovar. Mr. Karač was a member of the expert negotiating team for the city of Vukovar. Currently, he is a member of the Government Committee for the Restoration of Culture of the City of Vukovar and conducts conservation and restoration research of the historical core of Vukovar. Mr. Karač has published more than hundred scientific and professional papers.

Paul LEMMENS teaches a course on human rights at the Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium. He is Director of the European Postgraduate Programme on Human Rights and democratization, based in Venice, Italy. Mr. Lemmens is also lawyer at the Supreme Administrative Court, and advocated at European Court for Human Rights in Strasbourg. He was also an ad hoc judge in the cases held against Belgium.

Goran MILAS, Ph.D., Zagreb, Croatia. He is a Senior Research Associate at the Ivo Pilar Institute of Social Sciences. At Studia Croatica he lectures Statistics in Social Researches and Research Methods. He is a member of the Management Committee in COST-project Anticipating Future. He is the author of 20 scientific papers.

Ivan ROGIĆ, Ph.D., Zagreb, Croatia. Research Advisor at the Ivo Pilar Institute of Social Sciences and a lecturer at the Faculty of Architecture in Zagreb. His research interests are urban sociology, sociology of technology, sociology of culture and sociology of development. He is the author and co-author of numerous books as well as scientific and professional papers.

Vlado ŠAKIĆ, Ph.D., Zagreb, Croatia. Senior Research Associate and Director of the Ivo Pilar Institute of Social Sciences. He is professor of psychology and the Head of the Department of Psychology at Studia Croatica in Zagreb. He has published several books and numerous scientific papers and participated in many scientific symposia in Croatia and abroad. Dr. Šakić is the Principal Investigator of the project Social Deviations and Antisocial Behaviour: Interactive Approach.

Miroslav TUĐMAN, Ph.D. is a professor at the Department for Information Science at the Faculty of Philosophy in Zagreb. He was a vice-director of the Office for National Security and director of the Croatian Information Agency. Dr. Tuđman is collaborator and principal investigator of a number of scientific projects, author of eight books and over hundred and fifty papers, editor of fifteen proceedings and also Editor-in Chief of the international magazine National Security and Future.

Ante VUČKOVIĆ, Split, Croatia. He is a priest and a member of the Franciscan Province of the Holy Salvation based in Split. Fra Vučković completed his education in Sinj, and studied theology in Makarska and Zagreb. He also studied philosophy in Munich and Rome. Lectured in Makarska and Rome and currently, he teaches at the Catholic Faculty of Theology in Split.

Bože VULETA, Split, Croatia is Director of the Franciscan Institute for the Culture of Peace in Split. He organized a number of scientific meetings dealing with peace, social solidarity and social Christian ecology as well as two extensive researches dealing with these topics. He has participated in numerous projects of other scientific institutions in Croatia and abroad.

Dražen ŽIVIĆ, Ph.D., Zagreb, Croatia. He is a research associate at the Ivo Pilar Institute of Social Sciences and a lecturer of the courses Demography and Demographic tendencies in Croatia in the 20th century at Studia Croatica in Zagreb. He has participated at about ten scientific symposia in Croatia and abroad. Živić is Principal Investigator of the scientific project Demographic Losses and Consequences of the Homeland War. He was the author of more than fifty scientific and professional papers.