

Rising Inequalities III

Oct. 3rd: 45, rue des Saints-Pères, Univ. René Descartes, 6th arrondissement.

14.00-18.00. Prof. Brigitte Le Roux : Introduction to SPAD 9.0

Oct. 4th: IRESCO, CNRS, 59-61, rue Pouchet, 17th arrondissement.

10.00-17.45.

09.30-10.00: Registration - Welcome

10.00-11.00: Keynote 1 - Jérôme Bourdieu (INRA-EHESS-PSE): A social history of economic wealth in France (1820-1960)
11.00-13.00: Elites/Field of Power.

Anton Grau Larsen, Christoph Houmann Ellersgaard & Jacob Lunding (Copenhagen Business School): Navigating the Space of Power

Felix Bühlmann (Univ de Lausanne): The Rise of the Financial Elite.

Sam Friedman (LSE): Trivial Pursuits? The shifting cultural participation of the British Elite 1897-2016

13.00- 14.00: Lunch

Parallel session 1

14.00-15.30: Work and Working Life.

Andreas Melldahl (Uppsala University): Bringing work back in: a multidimensional approach to work-life differentiation

Virgilio Borges Pereira (Univ. of Porto): The Portuguese Field of Construction Industry

Jørn Ljunggren (University of Oslo): "Constructing a Working Class Body. The (re)gaining of tradesman masculinity"

Parallel session 2:

14.00-15.30: Culture.

Vegard Jarness (NIFU): Intersections of Class and Gender

Predrag Cveticanin and Željka Zdravković: The Third Axis – habitus, mobility and cultural practices

Semi Purhonen: 'Enter Culture, Exit Arts: The Transformation of Cultural Hierarchies, 1960-2010

15.30-15.45: Coffee break

15.45-17.15: Culture – cont.

Julien Duval (CNRS-CESSP): The rising inequalities within a field of cultural production

Nicolas Robette (CREST-LSQ) & Olivier Roueff (CNRS-CRESSPA): A (truly) multidimensional legitimacy. The scale of cultural legitimacy and the interactions between diplome, age and sex.

Dieter Vandebroek: “Making sense of the social, making social sense. Children’s perception and judgment of class inequality.”

17.45 – 17.45: The future of SCUD. Discussion.

20.00 - Conference Dinner.

Le Pharamond 24 Rue de la Grande Truanderie, 75001 Paris

Oct. 5th: IRESCO, CNRS, 59-61, rue Pouchet, 17th arrondissement.

10.00-18.00.

10.00-11.00: Keynote 2: Cédric Hugrée (CNRS-CRESSPA), Étienne Penissat (CNRS-CERAPS) & Alexis Spire (CNRS-IRIS): Social Classes in Europe.

11.00-12.00: Keynote 3. Graziela Pedrosa (Universidade de São Paulo). Social Space and Educational Dynamics in a Large Latin American City.

12.00-13.00: Social Space and Fields 1

Frédéric Lebaron (ENS Cachan) & Pierre Blavier (CNRS): Is there a European Social Space?

Yasmine Siblot (Univ Paris 8) & Virgilio Borges Pereira (Univ. of Porto): The popular classes in France and Portugal. A sociological comparison “from below”.

13.00-14.00: Lunch.

14.00-15.30: Social Space and Fields 2.

Ellersgaard & al, CBS: Field Autonomy and division of the labour domination.

Magne Flemmen, Jan Fredrik Hovden & Lennart Rosenlund: The uses of media in Norway.

Patrick Lie Andersen: Political behaviour among youth. The importance of Social Class Origin, Education and Social Context

15.30-15.45: Last coffee break.

15.45-17.15: Education

Muriel Darmon (CNRS-CESSP): The brain, the habitus and the school form: how does social class affect post-stroke patients in rehabilitation units

Jennifer Waddling: Educational strategies among internationally mobile middle class families in Sweden.

Anna Bennich Björkman Uppsala University: Young Adults in the Swedish Periphery: Resources, outlooks, choices and strategies

17.15-18.00: Concluding discussion.