

WORKSHOP PROGRAMME

How to Research Gender: A Workshop on Methodology

April 8th, 2021

University of Graz, Austria (via online platform)

Interdisciplinary Workshop organized within Elisabeth-List-Fellowship-Programme for Gender Research at the University of Graz

9:30

Welcome and Introduction

Interdisciplinarity

9:45-10:15

Roberta Maierhofer and Barbara Ratzenböck

Theorizing Cultural and Social Intersections of Gender and Generations: The Approach of Anocriticism

10:15-10:45 Respondent: Mirko Petrić, Discussion

10:45-11:00 e-coffee break

11:00-11:30

Sarah Nabjinsky

The Interdisciplinary Nature of Gender Studies in Musicology: Difficult Beginnings and the Slowly, Ever-changing Status Quo

11:30-11:45 Respondent: Roberta Maierhofer, Discussion

11:45-12:00 e-coffee break

Qualitative Methods

12:00-12:30

Darija Ivošević

Researching LGBTIQ+ Identities: Field Notes from the Interviews on the Coming Out Experience

12:30-12:45 Respondent: Katharina Scherke, Discussion

12:45-14:00 e-lunch break

Mixed Methods

14:00-14:30

Mirko Petrić

From Triangulation to Mixed Methods in Relational Sociology

14:30-15:00

Augustin Derado

Relational Approach in Sociology and Mixed Methods

15:00-15:30 Respondent: Barbara Ratzenböck, Discussion

15:30-15:45 e-coffee break

15:45-16:45

Inga Tomić-Koludrović, Augustin Derado, Mirko Petrić

Mixed Methods in Relational Sociology of Gender: Examples from GENMOD Project

16:45-17:15 Respondents: Roberta Maierhofer and Katharina Scherke, Discussion

17:15-17:30

Closing remarks